

TP Panorama

This program allows you to create a panorama from two images.

- First step : You have to select 4 points or more on the image 1, and use the right click when you are done.

- Second step : You have to select the matching points on the image 2 (in the same order), and then press the right click to make the panorama.

That's it !

Imagine++

